

Annual AITA Conference Registration and Dues Renewal

The American Irish Teachers Association Conference, held annually since 1976, fulfills our organization's mission of increasing knowledge and appreciation of Irish and Irish American history, literature, music and art, among all people - Irish and non-Irish, educators and non-educators alike.

The 44th annual conference will be held on Saturday, November 9th, at the NY Irish Center, conveniently located near NYC bus and subway stations, including Vernon Blvd. on the 7 line, just one stop from Grand Central Station in Manhattan.

With best wishes and appreciation for your support,

Doris Marie Meyer, President
Deborah Shea, Secretary
Charlotte Murray, Treasurer
Rosemary Gould, Financial Secretary
Patrick O'Sullivan, Corresponding Secretary

Please send your registration form and check payable to AITA by November 5th (and remember that all journal submissions must be received by October 31st).
